VACANCY AT VALKENDORFS KOLLEGIUM

One room is available from May 15 2026, for a student enrolled at The Faculty of Science, University of Copenhagen.

Valkendorfs Kollegium is the oldest dormitory in Denmark. Today, 22 students live here in Sankt Peders Stræde, in the heart of Copenhagen. Our rooms are split out across four floors, each of which share a kitchen, bathroom and shower. We have our own front and backyard full of rose beds, fruit trees and a lawn with plenty of room for BBQs, studying and tanning in the sun. Common areas include a living room, a library, and a TV-room. We dine together twice a week, host parties full of old traditions and maintain the house together throughout the year.

All residents are expected to participate actively in the social life of the dorm and to contribute to our community. Each resident holds an “embede” (a dorm responsibility), through which we share the tasks necessary to keep both the house and our community in great condition. Our monthly rent is currently DKK 1,825, with an additional dorm tax at DKK 200 per month.
